Prostitution is widely known as the oldest profession. In spite of centuries of attempts to repress the trade it continues to flourish in nearly every corner of the world. Based on years of experience and first hand research, "How to Pay to Get Laid" is a global guide to the skin trade. Filled with general information as well as localized specifics from a dozen countries, this book will teach you everything you need to know about the global pay for play sex industry. No stone is left unturned. Learn about Chinese and Korean massage parlors throughout the United States that provide happy endings and full sex, Korean kiss rooms where customers spend hours tongue kissing college students, Japanese pink salons where women publicly perform oral sex on customers in a café-like atmosphere, an entire town in the Dominican Republic based on sex tourism, Vietnamese barbershops where young women provide oral sex to patrons, Nicaraguan bars where women sell sex for 12 US dollars, and so much more. "How to Pay to Get Laid" doesn't stop with just the basic details; it spells out what services are available, where they can be found, how they work, and how much they cost. Don't be uninformed!
