Sideline Hoe Le'Vonne

Kami seems to have it all. A great paying job in Human Resources for the City of Chicago, money in the bank, a closet full of high-end fashions and the man of her dreams. The only thing is her “man” has a woman and child at home. Deon can have any woman he wants and spends his time between his two favorite girls; Zena, the mother of his child and Kami the woman that his heart truly beats for. It is all love, fun and games for Kami and Deon until she gets knocked up for the third time. Hell bent on being happy and finding a love of her own, Kami packs up and leaves Chicago to have her baby in solace. When Kami finds out the man that holds the key to her heart was slated to marry his baby mother she makes her way back to her hometown to reclaim what should have been hers.
