British science-fiction series Doctor Who is a worldwide phenomenon. Unlike many 20th century television or movie series, it has been brought into the 21st century intact, with fifty years of history behind it. The Time Heads' Concise History of Classic Doctor Who introduces you to the first eight Doctors and their adventures, the creative teams that brought the show into existence and kept it going for twenty-six years, and the people who brought it back again. Twenty-eight short chapters will give you basic familiarity with the classic Doctor Who series, plus enough behind-the-scenes information to win a trivia contest. But beware: Spoilers.
