Motherhood Confidential: The Strange Disappearance of My Best Friend Joan Bechtel Linda Cohen
The parent's anti-advice book, it's chicken soup for the spleen of all those ex-best friends bumped for baby. Ex-best friends—a single, rural, attachment-parenting homeschooler and a married urban working mom, estranged by their polarized parenting perspectives--reunite to challenge the mothering taboos that alienate women from themselves and each other. This comic Rashomon journey through Trials by Parenthood blazes a trail for every mother shoveling through the dogma-doo in search of her own personally-correct answers. By defying the dogmas and doublespeak of Big Mother, these fugitives from the Mommy Police launch a conspiracy of validation for all women hiding in the closet of the parentally-incorrect.
