STARTING OVER: This is the beginning of the sweet message, but what is the beginning (The Trilogy Book 1) Molly Maguire McGill

“Why did they kill Curtis and Salvador?” “Where is Salvador’s body?” Paul Ish, visits with Lee Stone as Lee Stone retells the story of Salvador.

Charles Liston, a hotshot young executive with the Nebraska Fish and Game from Leigh Nebraska met an eccentric from Lincoln Nebraska, Curtis, and later Salvador. They traveled the countryside healing people by the touch of Salvador’s hand and the kindness of his words. Salvador is tried, first by the state of Nebraska and later by a military tribunal. This changed Charles Liston into the leader Salvador named Lee Stone.

“Please come travel with us as we recollect the events leading to these deaths and help Brother Lee Stone piece together the murder mystery, why did the authorities kill Father Curtis and Brother Salvador and where is Brother Salvador’s body?”

Molly Maguire McGill grew up near Philadelphia. She graduated from Kent State with a Bachelor-of-Arts where she He studied Community Counseling and Creative Writing. Her first book was Travels with Bother Retter. She also published via Kindle, Memoirs from the Journal of Will Kommen, Letters from Wolfgang Quelle in the Village of Antioch, and The Presidency of Sarah Palin. She is working on two romance novels, “Romance in New York,” and “A Sappy Piece of Crap.”

Her mother named her after her Aunt, Molly McGuire. Organizations, to which her Aunt was an active member, included the Ancient Order of Hibernians, a non-violent order protecting the welfare of Irish Catholics, especially the clergy. Molly follows the advice of this widow. “Do not follow the ways of my sons. Their cause was just, their methods were not.” “You cannot use violence to fight manure; it just swishes around and ends up in your face.” Molly’s goal is to aid the Irish, and all people made in the image of Almighty God, socially and economically. Molly’s novels are in honor of Jesus who rescued her from the ravages of radical conservative ideology.
