What Would You Do? Gidget M. Harris

An Important Message for Adults Every single day each of us encounters an animal of one kind or another, whether we actually interact with it, or just view it from a window or pass it on the street. Animals are a part of nature and a huge part of our world, and therefore, should be treated with the same respect as we would all like to be. This book provides young children with the opportunity to learn and appreciate the importance of demonstrating sensitivity and respect towards animals by helping them to consider how they would feel and what they would do if they were treated in the same manner as they treat all of the animals they encounter. Although this book may be short and concise, the thought exercise that it provides is extremely powerful, and the understanding gained through it will last a lifetime.
