BOOK #1: ROMANCE: First Chance - Billionaire's First Baby

Left at the altar by her cad of Fiancé?, Florence decides to take her fate into her own hands. She leaves her small home town of Hammond and takes the first train ride to a big city. Deciding that marriage isn't for her, especially after losing her virginity to a man who changed his mind about her, she takes her pride and leaves. Knowing that she's abandoning her mother to find a solution to saving her farm, when she arrives in the big city and is offered a job, she takes it.

Benjamin's father is deathly ill, and makes a simple request. He wants to see Ben happily married before he dies. Ben is a bit of a womanizer, and the idea of settling down worries him. Especially from the pick of the women in their inner circles. How is he supposed to find a down to earth woman who will support him? An honest, kind woman is almost impossible to find in the big city, until he stumbles into Flo.

Picking up a dress for his sister, Flo catches him off guard and he's smitten from the moment she trips over a mannequin. Of course, he needs to find a way to prove that he wants more than just a roll in the hay, but will she be open to risking her heart again after being burned by the last man who said he wanted to marry her?

Seducing her first is easy enough, but how will he win her heart? Can he convince her he has honorable intentions and she's not just another notch in his bedpost?

BOOK #2: BILLIONAIRE: Billionaire's Hidden Desire

Lipstick stains on his collar, late nights at the office, and another woman's perfume carrying gently across the evening breeze can only mean one thing. Howard is the only man Marla has ever loved. Marla cannot believe that he would betray her, but the signs are too obvious to ignore. When she first finds out that her husband is having an affair Marla feels like her world is falling apart. She soon finds herself alone and penniless, forced to turn to a complete stranger for aid.

Paul is a billionaire who is just getting out of a bad marriage himself. He's had months to come to terms with the fact that the woman he loves married him for his money and is now having affairs behind his back left and right. Though he has sworn not to get involved with any women until his divorce is final he cannot let Marla end up on the street, can he? Unsure of where else to turn, Marla quickly becomes close to Paul. His strength helps her through each day. They could be just the thing to mend each other's broken hearts.

BOOK #3: ROMANCE: The African Billionaire's Secret Baby

Johannes Katlego made his billionaire fortune building his investment and banking firm in South Africa from the ground up. Now, finally successful, he is opening his first branch overseas in New York City. He was expecting the lawyers and meetings to be long and tedious, but he wasn't expecting her.

Helena Johnson grew up in New York and worked diligently to become a lawyer. Everything about her life was professional until she met Johannes. She fell for him instantly and it went against her self-imposed professional code, but she didn't care. Johannes wanted Helena and only her, but his hands were tied. Back in South Africa, he had signed a contract for an arranged marriage to an heiress and if he backs out of the contract he could lose a quarter of his hard earned fortune. Who will he chose? His obligations or his heart? Time is running out to make his choice, especially once Helena finds out she's pregnant.
