Shell Chris Gill

Imagine a world where fresh air and natural light are distant memories. Where a claustrophobic city lies along the seabed, built to protect humanity from disaster. For the last decade, this is what Red has called home.

After the rebellious 19-year-old's father mysteriously died when she was a child, she was heartbroken. Then, when her mother was accidentally left behind in the Old World, Red began to question President Ivan Spencer and his regime. Now she's prepared to do whatever it takes to finally escape the bleakness of The Shell. But if she does, what will be left of the world outside?

Suspense-filled, shocking and impossible to put down, Shell is a rare pearl in today's ocean of dystopian science fiction.

Are you ready to enter The Shell?
