Sydney Rye is finally becoming comfortable with the vigilante network, Joyful Justice, that she inspired. On a private island in the midst of the Pacific she is studying hard, learning about the structure of the organization and their active missions, preparing to take on a leadership role. However, when Sydney Rye's good friend and fellow Joyful Justice council member, Merl, goes missing in Shanghai, she and her dog, Blue, rush to the People's Republic to track him down. Following Merl's trail leads Sydney into the darkest corners of China's corruption where she witnesses atrocities that make her already cold blood freeze.
