This book is a stand alone.

Fanci and Devin meet during a chance encounter, but what are the chances of them falling for one another? After all, they're on very different paths in life. Fanci is married to a man who is almost twenty years her senior. Her mission since she was a young girl was to leave the low income area that she grew up in behind and live the lavish life. She does that by finding the right man and using his funds to start her own business, but is he really Mr. Right?

Devin has a past in the streets, but is trying to go the straight and narrow path after being incarcerated. He is a business owner who is also on a quest to find true love. His daughter Londyn is his life, but her mother Amil makes his life a living hell. When Fanci pops up at his tattoo shop it changes his world forever.

Fanci and Devin embark on an affair that is explosive and passionate, but will that "D" on the side be worth it in the end? When emotions and jealousy come into play, the repercussions are unimaginable. This cautionary tale about infidelity is sexy, fast paced and filled with drama.
