Drago (Second Wave Book 2) Mikayla Lane

Devon Sinclair loved her life. As one of the biggest parasites in DC, she spent every day bribing officials and ruining the American dream for the working class as she lobbied politicians on behalf of her clients. At the top of her game, she was highly sought after by every dirt bag corporation and scum with their own agenda to corrode America for financial gain and power.

None of them had a clue who her true employers were. The truth was, she had chosen sides in the hidden, dark war consuming the world long ago, and she had never regretted it. Until she stumbled across the strange alien who literally walked into her path outside her house and set her heart and body on fire.

Drago fle' te' Trugh had come to the strange city of Washington, DC to help his sister in law find a prime hunter and to help track the traitorous prime who had attempted to kill one of their own. He'd been in town only days when he ran into the beautiful, strong and enigmatic woman who short circuited his energy and left him aching to touch her.

The more clues that Drago and his brothers uncover, the more convinced he becomes that the woman of his dreams is among the members of the Relian cult trying to destroy the world and the human race.

With a prime traitor close on their heels and the depth of the betrayal becoming clearer, Drago will have just one chance to save her, but only if he can convince her to turn from the cult determined to destroy them all.
