Kara has never really found herself all that interesting. She's a simple girl in college who works at a diner to supplement the meager amounts her parents are able to spare so she can finish school. One day, she finds herself in an all too familiar situation where she is being harassed by some rowdy patrons who only seem to be teasing her. As she is waiting for the bus home however, she unfortunately discovers that the men have been waiting on her and mean her no good. Just when it seems she may have a dismal fate ahead of her, she finds herself saved mysteriously, and awakens in an unfamiliar place. Though frightened at first, the very attractive man who seems to be her savior makes up for it a bit, however his good will comes at a price that Kara is shocked to discover is her surrender to him completely. Now she must become a slave to a powerful vampire king who seems to have had his eye on her for longer than she has known... Kara may find that her once simple life is flipped upside down, and in one night she could gain everything in her life that she was missing, even if it means servitude.
