Riz Matters, a twenty-three-year-old college dropout, wakes up one Saturday morning to find the late Albert Einstein sitting in her living room wearing her bathrobe and pink bunny slippers. After this encounter, her mundane life will spiral into an elaborate treasure hunt for Einstein's stolen brain. This story is inspired by true events of the afterlife of Einstein's brain. Riz, her genius brother Michael, and the deceased physicist, Albert Einstein, embark on a bizarre road trip to help Albert reclaim what was stolen from him sixty years ago--his brain. None of them realize that they are not the only ones looking for scattered pieces of gray matter.
