Mia doesn't know what to think of her new home in the country. Her father is always gone, and her mother is so busy with chores, but her new garden holds a secret: her flowers have eyes; and her garden, and her family, will never be the same.

The fourth book in the "Monsters A to Z" series is a sweet tale of friendship and faith in the gardens of our hearts.

3,500 words, eight full-color illustrations, for emergent and transitional readers.
