Somewhere between The Streets and The Office Suites lies THE HUSTLE. THE HUSTLE is where "victims-of" meet their circumstances and slippery slopes start descending.

THE HUSTLE is home of working weekends, business as usual, rationales affirmative action, and urban culture. It's the home THE HUSTLE is where people become angles and opportunities. THE HUSTLE is where the mind becomes plantation and most everyone's a fieldhand.

From street corners to corner offices, THE HUSTLE is mad seductive. It reads you, plays on your desires, your fears... Then before you know it, you're so caught up in it that you're at the bottom of it looking up. And it's only then that you start seeing the constructs and agendas and realize that they're way deeper than those who play them. It's also where you feel the cold hearts, cold eyes, and colder shoulders.
