The Mahatma, the Goats, and Young Cats Richard Crasta

Imagine a bored, pre-Mary Magdalene Jesus trying to get his coming Crucifixion off his mind by taking a time travel trip to 21st Century New York. Imagine Mahatma Gandhi and Buddha also taking similar trips, but for their own reasons. Imagine them having to answer that tired old question, "So what do you do?" This and other humorous stories, fantasies, and satires pack this 128-page, sometimes laugh-a-minute book. Other essays explore reducing America's budget deficits by conducting a nuclear weapon fire sale ("Delivered to Your Door in 90 minutes or the next one is on Us!"), author John Updike's remarkable achievements with young cats (and also, a Long Island immigrant Dad's observations when the Baby decides to fight the young Cat), and an Indian would be JFK-Lincoln whose speech begins, "Four score and seven minutes from now, drinks and gourmet aperitifs will be served." A variable feast of humor from the author of the bestselling novel "The Revised Kama Sutra," which was described by Kurt Vonnegut as "very funny." The cover is graced by two of the prolific and hugely talented Stephane Delapree's paintings of blue cats.
