The Therapist Lori Lesko

Lindsey CarMichael was a gifted child with an IQ of 190. Her father had high hopes that she would follow in his footsteps and practice law. Instead, Lindsey decided to pursue psychology as a career and her father relented, with one caveat: Lindsey was to be the very best.

And she was. But the combined stress of recovering from a past trauma and the frustration of being stuck in an unhappy relationship has left Lindsey overwhelmed and anxious.

She definitely needs a vacation, but her boss isn't willing to let her go. Exhausted, Lindsey's life begins to unravel quickly. If she's not careful, she'll be the one in need of therapy.
