Everyone fantasises, right? What if you chose to create on paper, the love life you wished you really had? Written, is a journal of sorts, following the exploits of Rebecca R Curran. A struggling fantasy writer, she decides that branching out into the romance genre could kick-start her career. However, writing a love story leads her to re-evaluate her own personal life; why hasn't she found the true love her characters have? On a major learning curve, Rebecca soon realises that success as a writer wasn't as important to her as she had first thought, and that sometimes, you need to lose something to realise exactly how much it means to you.
