Forgive Us Our Trespasses: A Love Story (The Our Father Series Book 1) Sally Malkowski

High school sweethearts Samantha and Bob are headed for the altar after graduation. A misunderstanding occurs. She marries someone else and moves states away. He relocates to California and gets involved with the hippie movement, drugs and any woman who will say “yes”.

Nineteen years later and upon the death of her husband, Samantha returns to D.C to track down her lost love.

Marty Simpson - instrumental in the couple’s breakup - is involved in a near fatal auto accident. Marty marries outside of “the group” and is shunned by them because he dumped one of their friends. Ironically, it’s Marty’s accident that is instrumental in binding Samantha and Bob’s relationship, and bringing the old crowd back into his life.

Former classmate Pete Wellswood, now Father Peter - a much loved Catholic priest - has demons of his own to face: Because of his support of the Gay Rights Movement, a campaign within the Catholic hierarchy is afoot to remove him from his church.

Father Jacob Horton, a priest from Florida, falls in love with a parishioner there. When the Bishop gets wind of this, he reassigns him to St. Thomas in Georgetown as Father Peter’s assistant. In a bizarre twist of fate, Father Jacob runs into Samantha, an old friend from his neck of the woods, who helps him deal with the indecision about his vocation.

Focusing on Georgetown in D.C., FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES (previously released as BITTERSWEET PARKWAY) - a “feel good love story with a Christian attitude”- is narrated by Samantha. It is the first book in the OUR FATHER series.
