George Washington 2016: A Visit Into America's Future Tommy J Lintner

What happens when everybody's favorite first president, George Washington, goes walking one morning near his beloved Mount Vernon and is magically transferred to the year 2016? What will he see and how will he react to the nation he helped create? A history professor encounters Washington on the highway to Alexandria, takes him under his wing and makes certain that he sees just enough without disturbing the fragile balance of history. In large format with many illustrations and historical prints, this book will delight readers of all ages with its humor, reflection and historical significance, however far-fetched it may seem!
