Medical Cell Biology Steven R. Goodman

The thoroughly revised, updated Second Edition of Medical Cell Biology is the only textbook that fully meets the content requirement of the cell biology portion of the new U.S./Canadian Curriculum in the Anatomical Sciences. In 352 pages, the book provides all the information a medical student needs to practice modern medicine and perform well on Board exams. All chapters of this edition have been updated to meet current curriculum requirements, and the chapter on cell motility has been completely rewritten. Each chapter opens with a new clinical case prepared by Betty S. Pace, MD, for the Second Edition, and concludes with the diagnosis and a discussion of the disease. National Board Part I type questions appear at the end of each chapter, and answers are given at the end of the book. A computer disk with over 200 Board type questions, answers, and explanations comes with the book.
