A Night to Remember Carley Blanchard

This book is a chiller, full of suspense, that will keep you on the edge of your seat while trying to determine who the mysterious caller...and murderer might be. Taylor is a 17-year-old girl who's content spending her last years of high school hanging out with her friends and her boyfriend, Tanner. She babysits to earn extra money, and she enjoys it. That is, until the mysterious phone calls begin. With each call, Taylor becomes more fearful. Then her life takes a dark and treacherous turn from which she'll never fully recover. The author is a 14-year-old student attending Jr. High School as an 8th grader. She loves creative writing and benefits from the collection series of R. L. Stine and others to help inspire her creativity. She hopes to continue developing her writing style in the future.
