Have you ever felt so full of joy you thought you were going to burst? Are there times when God's love overflowed from your life and you felt like a bystander? Was there ever a time you had a need, perhaps a need no one else knew about, and God met that need in a miraculous way? Out of the Overflow is filled with stories of people who can answer yes to those questions-people who have said yes to God and have a living vital relationship with Him. A relationship that often overflows into the lives of others. Take a glimpse through the eyes of those who have experienced the excitement and thrill of having God's love flow from their lives into the lives of others.
