A passionate love without borders falls prey to deadly desert predators...

All Inez Guzman has ever wanted is to come to America and study to become a nurse. When she finally saves up enough money, she pays a group of coyotes to run her across the border into the United States. But things turn deadly once they cross the border, and Inez manages to escape out into the burning hot desert, heading toward Apache Junction, with the coyotes hot on her heels.

Henry Collins is a former army sniper, still recovering from his long tours in Iraq. After several years of living a monk-like existence on his family ranch, he is finally ready to start living again. When he meets Inez, he feels that she could be the one to help him feel truly alive again.

But just as their relationship begins to blossom, the coyotes track down Inez, and now both Inez and Henry are in mortal danger and running for their lives, and neither of them know if they will escape with either love or their lives intact.
