Reviving the legacy of the New Deal art projects—and perfectly timed with the centennial of the National Park Service in 2016—the Creative Action Network’s See America project is a crowd sourced art campaign that has so far produced more than 725 illustrations by over 200 artists from all 50 states celebrating the country’s national landmarks and treasured sites. The See America! Calendar highlights a dozen of the project’s most stunning designs: Majestic Yosemite Valley. The forested slopes of the Great Smoky Mountains. Sailboats drifting at the Cape Cod National Seashore. And a lone bison among the craggy peaks of Badlands National Park. Each month is an invitation to reconnect with the very soul of our nation.
