Autumn has to cope now she won't admit she has feelings for Christian, she has to manage standing alone with her feeling but it wasn't easy on her as she reacted when she saw a girl trying to make out with Christian, she was really pissed but Christian calmed her down and asked her what went wrong, He was right for thinking she wasn't mad because of that. She wasn't even mad because of who the girl he was with. The truth was, she was hurt. Actually, her rage came from the jealousy she felt at seeing him with another girl. She didn't know why she felt this way. It shouldn't hurt to see him with another girl. It shouldn't make her feel like pushing the girl away from him, so far that they could never make contact again. But it did. And with those feelings, what Cheryl said hit her hard. She liked Christian. The most reasonable reason of why she felt like this was that. But even knowing that it made perfect sense, she had the urge to throw up as she denied it.
