Ava has returned home for her brother's wedding after being away for eight years; there she encounters her brother's best friend, Caleb—the same man who took her virginity at the high school prom and then proceeded to go to the Caribbean with another girl the very next day. No doubt the trader still lives in the lap of luxury, galavanting with gorgeous women every day. In her anger, she fails to notice the predator's hunger in Caleb's eyes when he sees how beautiful she has grown.
