Teresa. La mujer (Novela histórica) (Spanish Edition) Helena Cosano

Sobre santa Teresa se han escrito miles de páginas, pero la sombra de la monja mística y de la escritora y fundadora de conventos a menudo nos esconde a la mujer de carne y hueso, con sus virtudes pero también sus flaquezas, sus dudas y sus errores.

¿Cómo era realmente Teresa de Cepeda y Ahumada? ¿Cómo pensaba, cómo sentía? Helena Cosano intenta responder a esas preguntas. Así, en esta novela, la imagina totalmente libre, revolucionaria y, ante todo, mujer. Sin temor al qué dirán, a sus directores espirituales, a la Inquisición; libre como solo se puede ser cuando ya no se espera nada de nadie y quedan muy pocas horas de vida. ¿Qué nos diría una madre Teresa anciana y enferma si aún tuviera todas sus facultades y suficiente fuerza para sostener una pluma y escribir, si supiera que ya no tiene nada que temer, ni a los poderosos, ni a sus más terribles enemigos? Si supiera que su alma está a punto de reunirse con su Señor, quizá sería este el testamento que nos legaría.
